Dundee

Scotland's fourth largest city is located in the Central Belt to the north-east of Perth, and on the banks of the River Tay.

Enjoying more hours of sunshine each year than any other Scottish city it is a vibrant and youthful city that is transforming itself from its industrial past.

The two internationally renowned universities, 30-year, £1billion project to transform the waterfront, and opening of the only V&A Museum outside London have helped Dundee be voted as a Top 10 Destination in Europe by Lonely Planet for 2018.

Dundee's long history is evidenced by Pictish ruins and castles that date back to the 15th century, and it is still famous for the jute and jam making that powered its industrial growth. One of the city's most famous exports is Dundee Cake, a buttery fruit cake topped with whole almonds. Dundee is now home to a vast array of restaurants, bars, cafes and artisan producers catering to all tastes, and adding to the vibrant feel of the city.

Dundee is well connected to the rest of Scotland by road and rail, and had daily flights to London Stansted from where many European destinations can be easily accessed.

The economic expansion of Dundee focuses on sectors such as energy; lifesciences and healthcare; computer game development; and creative industries. There are also plans to create an International Aviation Academy at Dundee Airport for the training and development of Air Traffic Controllers, pilots, flight crew and aviation engineers.
